Disclosures

- Recipients are responsible for all other educational expenses.
- Awards are disbursed in 2 increments, before the recipient's 1st course or the course after the scholarship is awarded, whichever is earlier and the 10th course. If a student receives the first payment and fails to maintain a GPA of 3.0 at CIAM, then they will forfeit the second payment (the 10th course payment).
- Must be a United States citizen, or Permanent Resident for Academic Scholarship or the Community Scholarship. Nonimmigrant students studying on Visas are only eligible for International Scholarship.
- Award recipients who do not start in their intended term specified on the admissions application will have their award expired and will have to reapply for available offerings at the time of their actual enrollment.
- To retain scholarship eligibility, recipients must remain in good academic standing (3.0 CGPA).
- To qualify for a scholarship, students must maintain continuous enrollment on a term basis.
- Students can apply for as many scholarships as they are eligible, but will only be awarded a maximum of one (1) scholarship for the degree.
